

EXCERPT (content located in three of the assignment rubrics, combined here for this sample)

Interview process:

- Interviews may be conducted via an instructor approved medium.
- You may utilize email, Skype, telephone, an in-person meeting or use of another medium that allows real time communication and that can be recorded after the interviewee's approval.
- Interviewees must agree to participate in this assignment, understanding that your assignment will be submitted upon completion.
- In the Blackboard OLCU 325 course, you will find resources that will walk you through use of several presentation methods.
  - Additional resources include:
    - The Multimedia Writing and Design Support page
    - CII YouTube page - Create your own presentation
  - Should you wish to include portions of your recording within your presentation, tutorials have been provided in this Resources folder to walk you through the necessary steps.
